Hi,

We're reaching out to local businesses within the neighborhood to invite you to an exclusive Ktown event hosted by the Dolly Llama Waffle Master at the Selig Building on Thursday, May 24th from 6-9pm at [The Alvin C. Selig building, 273 S. Western Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90004](http://The Alvin C. Selig building, 273 S. Western Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90004). Join us for an evening full of doughy bubble waffles, waffle sticks and classic waffles paired with unlimited scoops of ice cream while mixing and mingling with Ktown VIPs. During this VIP event you'll be one of the first to experience a bubble waffle ice cream cone with house-made batter that is poured into a custom, state-of-the-art waffle iron.

On the corner of 3rd and Western, an intersection that many Angelenos pass through, is a historic building in Koreatown which has recently been restored and brought back to life. The Alvin C. Selig building, a black and gold terra cotta masterpiece that was built in 1931 and designed by Arthur E Harvey, a well-respected Los Angeles based architect. The Dolly Llama is now reopening this historical building's doors on May 24th, and we would love to have you as our guest.

Let me know if you can attend this premier event by Monday, May 21st so I can put you down as an RSVP. RSVP to jenn@localitela.com

Hope to see you there!

Best,
Jenn
